

THIRTY-FIRST DAY
(Tuesday, March 21, 1989)

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Armbrister, Barrientos, Bivins, Brooks, Brown, Caperton, Carriker, Dickson, Edwards, Glasgow, Green, Haley, Harris, Henderson, Johnson, Krier, Leedom, Lyon, McFarland, Montford, Parker, Farmer, Ratliff, Santiesteban, Sims, Tejeda, Truan, Uribe, Washington, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

A quorum was announced present.

The Reverend Vincent Lopez, Principal of St. Michael's Academy, Austin, offered the invocation as follows:

O glorious Father in heaven, we ask You to bless the lives and deliberations of our Senators of the State of Texas during this Holy Week: give them the underpinnings of goodness and integrity so that they may truly hear Your word, O Lord, and, in the hidden recesses of their souls, inspire each Senator to serve the powerful; to serve the powerless; to respect the educated; to understand the illiterate. And, in the promotion of the interests and well-being of each person of the State of Texas, may our Senators know that the common good of every American in our nation and of every citizen of our planet is to be fully enhanced and furthered. We ask for this through the presence of Your Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

On motion of Senator Brooks and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.

SENATE RESOLUTION 288

Senator Truan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Corpus Christi Day will be celebrated at the State Capitol on March 21, 1989, to honor this beautiful "City by the Sea" and its proud citizens and to recognize their contributions to the State of Texas; and

WHEREAS, The Corpus Christi Chamber of Commerce, Senator Carlos F. Truan, and the rest of the Corpus Christi legislative delegation will host a reception honoring the Members of the Texas Legislature at the Austin Marriott; and

WHEREAS, Joining in sponsoring this festive event are the City of Corpus Christi and the Corpus Christi Area Economic Development Corporation, Convention and Visitors Bureau, Steering Committee for Higher Education, Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Port of Corpus Christi Authority, Regional Transit Authority, and Heart of Corpus Christi; and

WHEREAS, First settled as a frontier trading post in 1839, the city is now ranked as the 57th largest city in the United States and the seventh largest city in Texas; happily, Corpus Christi has managed to attain this status without sacrificing the delightful quality of life that remains one of its chief attractions; and

WHEREAS, A vacationer's paradise, it has long been one of Texas's most popular seacoast playground cities and the recreational center of South Texas; and

WHEREAS, The beautiful seaside city is the deepest port on the Gulf of Mexico and the seventh busiest in the nation with ships from nearly every country in the world; its major cargoes are oil and refined products, grain, cotton, and chemicals; vessels transporting cargo to and from all ports of the world moved more than 67 million tons of cargo through the port in 1988; and

WHEREAS, The Corpus Christi Bay Area's economic growth is studded with a bright forecast, creating new jobs faster than either state or national averages; the Port of Corpus Christi handled more tonnage in 1988 than in any year in its history; and

WHEREAS, Corpus Christi and the Bay Area continue to attract residents as roughly 500,000 people have discovered this lovely and desirable region to make their home; and

WHEREAS, The city is doubly proud to have two excellent centers for higher education, Corpus Christi State University and Del Mar College; and

WHEREAS, There is pending legislation in the 1989 session for Corpus Christi State University to become a four-year college by 1994 and to merge with The Texas A&M University System; and

WHEREAS, Corpus Christi is a regional center for cultural activities; the Bayfront Arts and Science Park is the home for the Bayfront Plaza Convention Center, Art Museum of South Texas, Corpus Christi Museum, which houses the Spanish Shipwreck Collection, Harbor Playhouse, and the Corpus Christi Water Garden; the Texas Jazz Festival, now in its 29th year, is one of the longest-running jazz festivals in the country; and

WHEREAS, Adding to its numerous attractions is the Texas State Aquarium proclaimed by the 69th Session of the Texas Legislature as the "Official Aquarium of the State of Texas"; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 71st Legislature, hereby congratulate the citizens of Corpus Christi and join with them in paying tribute to the "Sparkling City by the Sea" on Corpus Christi Day; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for the City of Corpus Christi in recognition of this splendid occasion from the Texas Senate.

The resolution was read and was adopted viva voce vote.

GUESTS PRESENTED

Senator Truan introduced, and escorted to the President's Rostrum, the following guests: Jerry Gates, Chairman of the Corpus Christi Chamber of Commerce; Gene Jones, President of the Kingsville Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. B. Alan Sugg, President of the Corpus Christi State University.

The President joined the Senate in welcoming these guests and presented them an enrolled copy of S.R. 288.

GUESTS PRESENTED

Senator Johnson was recognized and presented Dr. Rick Edwards, accompanied by his wife, of Grand Prairie.

The Senate welcomed Dr. Edwards, a participant in the "Capitol Physician" program sponsored by the Texas Academy of Family Physicians, and expressed appreciation for his contributions today.

SENATE RESOLUTION 281

Senator Parker offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Diabetes is a devastating disease that poses a serious public health problem for many Texans; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 411,000 persons in Texas have been diagnosed with diabetes and another 400,000 have the disease but have not yet been diagnosed; and

WHEREAS, The costs of treating complications of diabetes are high in human suffering, lost income, treatment costs, and costs to the state-supported medical care programs; and

WHEREAS, Complications such as amputations, blindness, kidney failure, heart disease, birth defects, and strokes result from uncontrolled diabetes; and

WHEREAS, Fifty to 60 percent of these complications can be prevented with good education about diet, weight, exercise, and appropriate patient diabetes education and clinical care; and

WHEREAS, The public health programs in Texas are crucial to the dissemination of good information about diabetes, its complications, and proper prevention guidelines; and

WHEREAS, The Texas Diabetes Council as mandated by the Texas Legislature has completed A Plan to Control Diabetes in Texas for the purpose of promoting more effective interventions to help reduce illness from diabetes in Texas, to educate the public on the problems of diabetes, and to increase public support for essential diabetes services; and

WHEREAS, The Texas Diabetes Council has made legislative recommendations to the legislature for the development of public programs on diabetes in order to promote better health for Texas citizens; and

WHEREAS, The American Diabetes Association and the Texas Diabetes Council have promoted March 21, 1989, as "Diabetes Alert Day" to call attention to this growing health care problem in our state; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 71st Legislature, hereby extend its concern for those with diabetes.

The resolution was read and was adopted viva voce vote.

GUESTS PRESENTED

At the request of the President, Senator Parker escorted the following guests to the President's Rostrum: Ms. Linda Russell, Chairperson for the Texas Diabetes Council; Bill Ward, Chairperson for the American Diabetes Association; Ms. Lilly Fontenot of Houston; Steve Davidson of Midland and Dan Smith of Dallas.

The President presented an enrolled copy of S.R. 281 to these guests.
